Camp 2009 brings you an impressive line-up of local and international talent!

Workshops

Maggie O'Regan will teach a sampling of European dances, especially from Russia. Maggie has 25 years of dance experience and is a well-known UK teacher.

Sonya Arabadzhieva, a recent arrival to New Zealand, will teach dances from her home country of Bulgaria. Sonya leads the very successful Auckland Bulgarian Roses dance group.

Buda Miljković, conductor of the choir Musica Balkanica, will teach traditional Balkan folk songs. Musica Balkanica are making a name for themselves in the Christchurch music scene.

Party time!

On Friday night, party with Cashy Yates from Wellington. Contra dancing and other easy group dances.

On Saturday night, party with Marcus Turner and the Footspa band from Dunedin. Live music, mostly Balkan.
